PROCLAMATION
PUBLIC LANDS DAY
SEPTEMBER 20, 2003

WHEREAS, America's system of public lands includes parks, unique landscapes, forests, wildlife refuges, historic trails, natural streams and wetlands, nature centers, gardens and other landmark areas throughout the nation that individually and collectively represent irreplaceable natural resources; and

WHEREAS, public lands provide locally accessible natural and cultural resources for environmental learning, wildlife appreciation and recreation; and

WHEREAS, public lands promote civic ideals that include shared stewardship and recognition of public ownership; and

WHEREAS, land conservation builds awareness among urban dwellers with concern about planned development, shared land use, preservation of wild areas and natural habitats, and the benefits realized by diligent restoration and enhancement efforts; and

WHEREAS, an alliance between private citizens, land managers and community leaders improves the condition of publicly held lands for the greater enjoyment and enrichment of all Americans; and

NOW, THEREFORE, as the Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim September 20, 2003, PUBLIC LANDS DAY in the state of North Dakota.
